

Don Mills Collegiate Institute

15 The Donway E
North York, ON M3C 1X6

Name: _____
Date: Wednesday, October 06, 2010
Teacher: Mr. Forsyth
Course: English, Academic, Grade 9, Period B - room 201

Oral Presentations

Students present profiles of famous English-language authors.

Expectations: LGV.01P, LG2.01D, LG2.02D, LG2.03D

Criteria	Level 1 (50% - 59%)	Level 2 (60% - 69%)	Level 3 (70% - 79%)	Level 4 (80% - 100%)
Knowledge and Understanding
describe information, ideas, opinions and themes from a variety of texts	able to describe familiar information, ideas, opinions and themes from some texts	able to describe common and newly acquired information, ideas, opinions and themes from some texts	able to describe common and most newly acquired information, ideas, opinions and themes from a variety of texts	able to describe common and all newly acquired information, ideas, opinions and themes from a wide variety of texts
Thinking
assess research information	assessment of research information demonstrates limited use of criteria	assessment of research information demonstrates some use of criteria	assessment of research information demonstrates considerable use of criteria	assessment of research information demonstrates thorough use of criteria
Communication
plan and make oral presentation	plans and makes an oral presentation with limited effectiveness	plans and makes an oral presentation with some effectiveness	plans and clearly makes an oral presentation with good effectiveness	plans and makes an oral presentation with considerable effectiveness
Application
describe concept in an organized manner	description of concept demonstrates limited organization	description of concept demonstrates some organization	description of concept demonstrates considerable organization	description of concept demonstrates a high level of organization